ORAL JUDGEMENT

These appeals have been placed for final disposal before this Court in view of later development of settlement between the parties. Mr. Kaushal Thaker, learned advocate for the petitioner-appellant submits that the parties in so far as of all these appeals are concerned have settled the matter, which would result in the withdrawal of the complaint itself filed u/s. 138 of the Negotiable Instrument Act. In all these cases the judgments and orders of acquittal rendered by the learned Magistrate in the criminal complaints in question have been brought under challenge. I have heard the learned advocate for the appellant (complainant), who presses for the disposal of these appeals for want of prosecution and the learned APP for the State.

Having gone through the judgments and orders rendered by the trial Court and bearing in mind the subsequent event of settlement between the parties brought to the notice of the Court by Mr. Kaushal Thakar, there is no other course except to pass the following order :

All these three appeals bearing Nos. 1107, 1108 and 1109 of 1994 are hereby dismissed.
